Council, however, no follow-up was taken by CIA at that time. Mr. Bissell went on to say he had therefore prepared memoranda to the various components of the Agency and he expected that within about two weeks the Director would be in a position to respond to any questions he might have asked about our implementation of this report. Mr. Sheldon pointed out that we have dual responsibilities with other agencies in regard to some of the recommendations and suggested that we get in touch with these agencies in this regard. The Director approved.
